ALL THE ART AND MYSTERIES OF JUGGLERY, MAGIC, SLEIGHT OF HAND, AND LEGERDEMAIN, ENHANCED, IMPROVED AND EXPLAINED!!

Monsieur PHILIPPE DEBARS, the celebrated professor of Natural Magic, being about to retire from Public life, is desirous of disposing of his cabinet and apparatus, comprising
1st. A collection of electrical, chemical, and all the parapsychnical concomitants,
2d. Illusory devices which are necessary to the execution of Natural Magic, and which form the backbone of the diabolical profession of Jugglery.
All these are of the best Paris workmanship, and are only to be had by the professor himself, who has been twenty years working ordf. He offers them at a low price, as he wishes to get rid by means of the picking case belonging to him, of a quantity of old and worn-out apparatuses, can be transported from place to place in perfect safety.

Monsieur DEBARS, having been favored by the gentlemen amateurs with the grand number of the Theatre intends to give two well performances.

One for the benefit of the
SAILOR'S HOME
(When the doors of the Theatre will be placed at the disposal of the office bearers of that institution.)

And the other for the benefit of the
HONGKONG PUBLIC
When the Tickets of admission will stand available for the take.

LOTTERY.

Which will take place at the conclusion of the performance, the prize consisting of the whole of Monsieur Debart's professional stock. As above described:

Monsieur DEBART pledges to place himself for the space of four days ~~at~~ ⁱⁿ the drawing of the lottery, and to give ~~to~~ ^{to} five shillings to each when

There will be fifty prizes in all. The following list the most valuable and magnificent:

First GRAND PRIZE—One large and rare automaton and dramatic bird, apparently adapted for the achievement of one of the twenty wonderful and mighty tricks, such as automaton bird, squirrel, non-human &c. Denoting dolls, dancing hat, &c. &c.

Second PRIZE—One Bunsen, Battery, electric clock, ball, magical boxes, electric wires.

The whole adapted for the performance of these astonishing and apparently supernatural tricks, which are achieved by the medium of electro-magnetism.

The list of all the prizes will be attached to the program of the show.

The original cost of the whole was over $6,000.
Admission to the Performance for the benefit of the Sailors Home, is left for the regulation of the trustees of that establishment. Tickets of admission for the night of the Lottery, including the above, are now on sale.
The date of the Performance will be notified so as to appear as the subscript in list is filled.
